

TRUMAN STATE UNIVERSITY
STUDENT RECREATION CENTER

DISCIPLINE PROTOCOL

(Adopted by the Recreation Center Advisory Committee on April 9, 1999; revised July 2012; revised June 2016)

BEHAVIOR EXPECTATIONS

- All persons shall be treated with respect.
- Patrons and guests will treat the facility and equipment with respect.
- Patrons and guests will follow all posted rules and regulations regarding use of the Student Recreation Center.

VIOLATIONS AND SANCTIONS

Level 1

Violation: minor infraction of policies such as lack of workout shoes, foul language.

Sanction: verbal warning with optional documentation on Incident Report Form.

Level 2

Violation: repeated or multiple minor infractions, or facility abuse such as dunking or hanging on the basketball rims.

Sanction: documentation on Incident Report Form and removal of offender from the Student Recreation Center for a 24-hour period.

Level 3

Violation: repeated Level 2 violations, or threatened (either verbally or through actions) physical aggression towards patrons, guests, or Student Recreation Center employees.

Sanction: documentation on Incident Report Form, referral to University Office of Citizenship and Community Standards and/or Public Safety or Human Resources, and removal of offender from the Student Recreation Center for an interim suspension period (typically three days for first offense), in addition to possible OCCS hearing.

Level 4

Violation: actual physical aggression (such as pushing and shoving) towards patrons, guests or Student Recreation Center employees.

Sanction: documentation on Incident Report Form, referral to the University Office of Citizenship and Community Standards and/or Public Safety or Human Resources, and removal of offender from the Student Recreation Center for an interim suspension period (typically seven days for first offense), in addition to possible OCCS hearing.

Level 5

Violation: actual physical aggressive contact with intent to cause injury toward patrons, guests or Student Recreation Center employees; theft; vandalism.

Sanction: documentation on Incident Report Form, referral to the University Office of Citizenship and Community Standards and/or Public Safety or Human Resources, and removal of offender from the Student Recreation Center for an interim suspension period (typically 112 days for first offense), in addition to possible OCCS hearing.

Note: Only days that the Student Recreation Center is open count towards any suspension period.